

STONELEIGH ABBEY

LOCATION: Stoneleigh, Warwickshire

PROJECT: Project Management Restoration and Reorder

PROJECT LENGTH: 2 Years

INFORMATION: Stoneleigh Abbey a Grade I listed building occupies a prominent position on the banks of the river Avon, The national agricultural centre is also situated in the grounds.

Mike Kemp project managed the internal restoration converting the top floors into luxury apartments and the ground floor into a public viewing area. The external restoration included full lead roof replacement, stone repairs to all facades, restoration of the orangery, gate house, attached out buildings and home farm. Working with Historical House Rescue and English Heritage the Abbey was restored to its former glory.

Services included :

- The programming of works around specialist subcontractors
- Implementation of Health & Safety plan
- Liaison with English Heritage and conservation officers
- Ceiling / Plaster restoration
- Structural works including structural timber restoration
- Restoration of all windows and doors
- Fire stopping to all floors and walls
- Sympathetic installation of a lifts
- Overseeing installation of new M&E Package

